

Radisson Blu Royal Park Hotel, Stockholm

Frösundaviks allé 15
Box 3005, SE - 169 03
Solna, Sweden

Tel: +46 (0)8 624 55 00

Fax: + 46 (0)8 85 85 66

E-mail: info.royalpark@radissonblu.com

<http://www.radissonblu.com/royalparkhotel-stockholm>

Hotel in Stockholm, Sweden boasts ideal location near Haga Royal Park. This hotel in Stockholm, Sweden, five kilometres north from the city centre, places guests on the western shores of the Brunnsviken Inlet and is located convenient from the Arlanda airport. In the heart of the Solna district, this hotel sits a short distance from the grassy knolls of the famous Haga Royal Park. Haga Royal Park was originally constructed in the 18th century by King Gustav III and serves as the focal point of inspiration for the entire Brunnsviken Inlet. The park features gorgeous scenery and offers an abundance of walking, jogging and cycling paths. The Solna district is a commercially enterprising area in Sweden and serves as one of the more popular destinations for Stockholm shopping.

Transportation options:

Airplane: Arlanda International Airport is a short 35 km from the hotel. Several airport coaches run from Arlanda International Airport and stop near the hotel. It is very convenient and inexpensive to use the airport coach and get off at the stop Frösunda and walk a few minutes to the hotel.

Bromma International Airport is located 8 km from the hotel.

Bus: Bus route 70 stops just outside the hotel and provides regular service throughout Stockholm.

Car: Take exit 168 from the E4 Frösunda/Frösundavik.

Taxi: For guests' convenience, a taxi stop is located outside the hotel's entrance.